What and where

We have the pleasure to invite you to the DOMINOES Dissemination Conference, which will take place on January 26, 2024, at Ramada Plaza Hotel - Bucharest. This event is aimed as a multiplier event of the DOMINOES Project - "Digital cOMPetences INformatiOn EcoSystem" - 2021-1-RO01-KA220-HED-000031158, co-funded by the European Union.

Target audience

This multiplier event addresses M.A. students, educators (professors and teachers), as well as civil society trainers and interested professionals involved in the fight against disinformation and its effects on society.

DOMINOES is designed to provide an innovative solution that not only assists the target audience in developing digital literacy, but also places the understanding of digital technologies in a wider social, cultural and security context, signaling broader implications and effects of digital technologies on individuals and society.

Program

The event will have two distinct sessions:

- 1) an academic debate on how to create resilience to disinformation
- 2) an interactive workshop that will allow participants to experience first-hand how fake news work, how to avoid and pre-bunk them.

About DOMINOES

Project DOMINOES addresses three major priorities of the ERASMUS+ program:

- Digital transformation;
- Supporting digital capabilities in higher education
- Contributing to innovation in vocational education and training.

Objectives

Creating a network of educators and professionals that can share and tackle specific problems caused by disinformation as well as develop means to increase societal resilience in face of this threat;

Increasing the participants' digital skills and especially their abilities to identify fake news in the online information ecosystem;

Identifying and developing an adaptable set of digital solutions to the problem of fake news that can be disseminated and practiced through a Massive Open Online Course.
